- Paying for the full class session will be accepted up to the starting date of each class. After the class start date, students must take classes by paying drop-in fees.
- Tuition and fees are not refundable. Registered students may make up missed classes within the current session by attending any of the classes offered in the current session; make-ups, however, cannot be carried to the next session. Medical exceptions may be made upon request.
- Zorongo reserves the right to cancel any class with fewer than five students registered.
- Zorongo Flamenco Dance Theatre and School and its instructors are not responsible for injuries sustained or illness contracted by the student during the class sessions.
- Beginners may start with your own shoes with sturdy 1.5"-2.5" heels (no sandals, platforms, wedges, or stilettos)
- Women's dress: Leotard or full skirt and movement-friendly top, flamenco-heeled shoes (or 1 1/2" character shoes), hair pulled back from face.
- Men's dress: Shirt, comfortable pants, flamenco boots or leather shoes/boots with heels.
- Shoes with smooth, non-rubber soles and a two-inch heel are recommended. Character or flamenco shoes work best. (We recommend visiting Grand Jeté located in St. Paul for shoes.)
